Chairman's Desk

Dear QCFI colleagues

It gives me immense pleasure to congratulate my fellow colleagues on this new quarterly issue of QC times of QCFI Bhilai Chapter. This prestigious professional body has been in the forefront in disseminating knowledge about Quality concepts, 5S, Problem solving tools & techniques and most importantly creating awareness amongst young minds and working professionals. I am happy to note that recently held session on Intellectual Property Rights has been very well received by the participants and will go a long way in helping professionals to plan for patenting of their products and services.

I wish our chapter continues in its journey to instill a culture of quality consciousness amongst the professionals by organizing learning and development sessions on topics of common interest.

With best wishes
